Note: This application is the second step in a three-step process. The first step requires that Scouters applying for Jamboree leadership positions read the information on the 2013 National Scout Jamboree web page, the Summit, and then apply through that web site for approval to attend the 2013 Jamboree. The third step will be a personal interview with an East Carolina Council personnel committee. This committee will forward recommended Jamboree leadership assignments to the Scout Executive for approval.
