

2008 Council Annual Banquet

On February 28, more than 240 Scouting volunteers, parents and Eagle Scouts gathered at Cornerstone Baptist Church in Greenville for the 2008 Council Banquet. Highlights of the evening included:

Young American Award
Left – Parteek Singla, Eagle Scout receives the Council's Young American Award from Dave Mahan, Council Vice President of Program. Parteek was chosen as one of 10 National Top finalists.

Eagle Class Honoree
Right – MH Pridgen, 2007 Eagle Scout Class Honoree recognizes an Eagle Scout with an East Carolina Council Eagle Scout ribbon. To read MH's speech click here

Congratulations to the 2008 Class of Silver Beavers!

From left to right – Micheal Francis, David Harper, Mike McNiff, Barbara Joe Parker, Walter Taylor and George Walter. This is the highest honor that a Council can bestow on a volunteer in recognition of service to better the lives of youth in their community.

2007 Class of Eagle Scouts

Pictured are 32 of the 160 Eagle Scouts in the East Carolina Council in 2007. More than 4% of the East Carolina Council's Boy Scouts earned their rank of Eagle in 2007, well above the national average.