

Green Bar ILST

Intro to Leadership Skill for the Troops

(this is a prerequisite for NYLT-National Youth Leadership Training)

When:

Saturday Dec. 9, 2023

Check-In: 8:00a.m.

Class: 8:30a.m. - 5:00p.m.

Where:

Camp Boddie

Blounts Creek, NC

Event Details:

East Carolina Council will offer a course of study for the Patrol Method for all youth leadership positions within a BSA Troop. This course will give the young leader a start to a solid foundation as they start a journey of leading Scouts. The course will cover three modules:

- Troop Organization: Troop, District, Council and National level responsibilities.
- Tools of the Trade: Core Skills to help lead, Communication, Planning and teaching.
- Leadership and Teamwork: Team Characteristics, Team Development, Ethics and Values of a Leader.

Train'em, Trust'em, and Let'em Lead!"

Green Bar Bill Hillcourt, 1939

Eligibility:

ScoutsBSA that are currently in a leadership position that have not attended NYLT. Or any Scout that wants to hold a leadership position with their Troop in the near future.

Cost:

$5.00 per Scout until Dec. 2 for lunch and dessert. Late registration will be $15 per Scout. East Carolina Council is offering this as a free training event by using Program Service Fee Funds. Scouts should eat prior to checking in on Saturday. (Food restriction: notify event director so arrangements are made)

Registration:

Registration cutoff is Dec 5. All participants must register for this event and pay online using tentaroo: www.tentaroo.com/ecc

Uniform:

Full Scout uniform. Scouts should dress appropriately for weather conditions.

Gear List:

Notebook/Pad, Pen/Pencil, Water Bottle
Open Mind and Great Attitude.

Point of Contact:

Joan Bower

joan.tripleb@gmail.com

252-626-6802