4. Following all the den races will be the Championship race. First and Second trophies will be awarded in that race as well.
5. There will be special certificates handed out at the awards ceremony for some special cars.
6. Concessions: Concessions items are provided to all for a very small price. Concessions are provided by: Pack 200 Concessions Team
7. If you can, please stick around after the race to help with clean-up and restore the venue back to its original condition.

Note: Your scout must be present to race his/her car. Another scout cannot race their car for them. The race times are approximate. The District Race Team Committee shall not be held responsible in the event the scout arrives late. The Racer may enter in at their next available heat in the lineup. All previous heats missed will be averaged in to the maximum race timer readout (9.999 sec.).

We will really work hard to complete the race in a timely manner, so you are not here all day. Thanks so much for working with us and allowing your son to experience the Derby. All comments and suggestions are welcomed. We want to make the Derby fun for everyone, so your comments are important so we can improve.

Thank you
